4.2	The Board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Complies	An administrator appointed by the Company from time to time to provide accounting and valuation services (Administrator) will be responsible for preparing the declaration pursuant to section 295A of the Corporations Act as the Company does not have a chief executive officer (or equivalent) or a chief financial officer (or equivalent). Accordingly, the Board will require that the Administrator puts in place sound systems of risk management and internal controls and ensures that the systems and controls are operating effectively in all material respects in relation to financial reporting risks.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Will comply	The Company will ensure that, when it has an AGM its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from shareholders relevant to the audit.
5.	Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Complies	The Company will operate under the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules as set out in its continuous disclosure policy that is contained in Section 2 of the Corporate Governance Charter (Continuous Disclosure Policy). The Company will ensure that all information which may be expected to affect the value of the Company's securities or influence investment decisions is released to the market in order that all investors have equal and timely access to material information concerning the Company. The Company Secretary has the responsibility for ensuring that all relevant information is released to the market in a timely manner in consultation with the Board. The Company considers this to be a satisfactory protocol given the size and nature of the Company. The Continuous Disclosure Policy is publicly available at http://antipodespartners.com/antipodes-lic
6.	Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Complies	The Company does provide information about itself and will provide information about its governance to investors via its website, http://antipodespartners.com/antipodes-lic

7.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework	Complies	The Board does not have and does not intend to establish such a committee at this time because the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature. It would not serve to protect or enhance the interest of shareholders. The Board will deal with this issue as a whole. Should the size of the Company change, the Board will consider establishing a separate risk committee. The Manager will be primarily responsible for managing the risk of the portfolio. Other third parties such as Prime Brokers, Custodians and the Administrator will assist with compliance. The Manager's risk policies and controls are designed to be robust and relevant to the Company's investment objective and strategy. Such policies are disclosed in the Prospectus.

	ASX Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
7.2	The Board or a committee of the Board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	Will comply	The Board will review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound. The Company will disclose whether the review has taken place in each annual report.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Complies	The Board does not have an internal audit function. The process for evaluation and improving the effectiveness of its risk management are set out in the Board Policy.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complies	The Company has economic risks. The risks and how they will be managed are set out in the Prospectus.
8.	Remunerate fairly and responsibly
8.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	Complies	The Board does not have and does not currently intend to establish such a committee because the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature, including the fact that it does not have any employees. It would not serve to protect or enhance the interest of shareholders. Should the size of the Company change the Company will consider establishing a separate remuneration committee. The Board will ensure that appropriate remuneration policies and practices are in place for Directors, while having regard to the ASX Recommendations. The Board will annually review the allocation and amount of remuneration Directors and this will reflect market rates. The Company does not have any executive directors or other senior executives.

	ASX Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	Complies	Refer to Item 8.1 of this table. The current remuneration of the Directors is set out in the Prospectus. There are no executive Directors or other senior executives.
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Not Applicable	The Company does not have an equity based remuneration scheme. However, the Company's share trading policy that is included in Section 4 of the Corporate Governance Charter addresses hedging and margin loans.
