1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complies	Section 1.8 of the Corporate Governance Charter sets out the process for appointment and retirement of directors of the Company (Directors). The Board Policy at this Section: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> sets out the matters that the Board will consider when appointing a Director, including the results of an appropriate background check which the Board will undertake; and requires the Board to provide shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	Section 1.8 of the Corporate Governance Charter requires there to be a written agreement between the Company and each Director. Under the Board Policy at this Section, when the Board considers the appointment of any new Director, the terms of appointment of the Director must be recorded in a letter of appointment which takes into consideration the ASX Recommendations. This forms the basis of the written agreement entered into between the Company and the Director. The Company does not have any senior executives.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.	Complies	Section 1.5 of the Corporate Governance Charter specifies that the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairperson, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the Board or a relevant committee of the Board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them;	Not Applicable	The Company does not have a diversity policy as the Company does not have any employees or management. In the event that a Director vacancy arises, the Board includes diversity in its nomination process as per the Board Policy at Section 1.8 of the Corporate Governance Charter.

	ASX Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
	(b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the Board or a relevant committee of the Board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complies	Section 1.10 of the Corporate Governance Charter outlines that a performance evaluation of the Board will be undertaken annually. The Board reviewed its performance by discussion and by reference to generally accepted Board performance standards.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Not Applicable	The Company does not have any senior executives.
2.	Structure of the Board to add value

	ASX Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
2.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address Board succession issues and to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Complies	The Board does not have and does not intend to establish such a committee at this time because the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature and, accordingly, would not serve to protect or enhance the interests of shareholders. The functions that would be performed by a nomination committee are best undertaken by the Board at this time. The Board will therefore deal with these issues as a whole. The Company recognises the importance of establishing a nomination committee as good corporate governance in circumstances where appropriate for the size, nature and complexity of a company. Should the size, nature and/or complexity of the Company change, the Board will consider establishing a separate nomination committee. The Board Policy seeks to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complies	The Company supports the appointment of Directors who bring a wide range of business, investment and professional skills and experience. While the Company does not have or disclose a formal skills matrix it does consider Directors' attributes prior to any appointment. The qualifications, skills, experience and expertise relevant to the position of director held by each Director in office at the date of the Company's 2020 annual report (Annual Report) and their attendance at Board meetings is included in the Annual Report.

	(4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.
4.2	The Board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Complies	The Manager and the Administrator are responsible for preparing the declaration pursuant to section 295A of the Corporations Act as the Company does not have a chief executive officer (or equivalent) or a chief financial officer (or equivalent). The Board requires the Manager and the Administrator to have in place sound systems of risk management and internal controls and ensures that the systems and controls are operating effectively in all material respects in relation to financial reporting risks.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Will comply	The Company will ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from shareholders relevant to the audit.
5.	Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and	Complies	The Company operates under the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules as set out in its continuous disclosure policy contained in Section 2 of the Corporate Governance Charter (Continuous Disclosure Policy). The Company ensures that all information which may be expected to

	(b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.		affect the value of the Company's securities or influence investment decisions is released to the market in order that all investors have equal and timely access to material information concerning the Company. The Company Secretary has the responsibility for ensuring that all relevant information is released to the market in a timely manner in consultation with the Board. The Company considers this to be a satisfactory protocol given the size and nature of the Company. The Continuous Disclosure Policy is publicly available on the Company's website under the Company tab at http://antipodespartners.com/apl
6.	Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Complies	The Company provides information about itself and its governance to investors via the Company's website under the Company tab at http://antipodespartners.com/apl
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Complies	The Board has developed a strategy within the Continuous Disclosure Policy outlined in Section 2.15 of the Corporate Governance Charter to ensure that shareholders are informed of all major developments affecting the Company's performance, activities and state of affairs. This includes having a website to facilitate communication with shareholders via electronic methods. In addition, the Company publishes regular shareholder communications, such as daily NTA announcements, monthly and quarterly updates as well as half yearly and annual reports and provides shareholders with an opportunity to access such reports and other releases electronically. Shareholders can communicate with the Company via electronic methods.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Complies	Section 2.15 of the Corporate Governance Charter specifies that the Board encourages full participation of shareholders at the Company's AGMs and any general meetings to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategy. The external auditor will also attend the AGM and will be available to answer any questions concerning the conduct, preparation and content of the auditor's report.

6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complies	Section 2.15 of the Corporate Governance Charter specifies that the Company gives shareholders the option to receive and send communications electronically.
7.	Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	Complies	The Board does not have and does not intend to establish such a committee at this time because the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature and accordingly, would not serve to protect or enhance the interests of shareholders. The Board will deal with this issue as a whole. Should the size or nature of the Company change, the Board will consider establishing a separate risk committee. The Manager is primarily responsible for managing the risk of the portfolio. Other third parties such as prime brokers, custodians and the Administrator assist with compliance. The Manager's risk policies and controls are designed to be robust and relevant to the Company's investment objective and strategy.
7.2	The Board or a committee of the Board should:	Complies	The Board will review the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy

	ASX Recommendations	Compliance	Comment
	(a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.		itself that major risks have been identified and are appropriately managed and that the framework continues to be sound. The Board also oversees market risk protocols and ensures the Manager complies with the asset allocation restrictions. The Company will disclose whether the review has taken place in each annual report.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	Complies	The Board does not have an internal audit function. The process for evaluation and improving the effectiveness of its risk management process are set out in the Board Policy at Section 1.3 of the Corporate Governance Charter. The Administrator provides periodic reports to the Board on risk management and internal control processes relevant to the Company.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complies	The Company has a material exposure to economic risks, but not to any environmental or social sustainability risks. The Company has appointed the Manager to manage the Portfolio. The Company will manage risk by monitoring the Manager to ensure that the investment guidelines are implemented. Risks associated with volatility within the Portfolio will be managed through the active management of the Portfolio. Under the Investment Management Agreement the Manager must report to the Board on a regular basis. These reports allow the Board to monitor the Manager and the Portfolio to ensure ongoing compliance with the Investment Strategy and investment guidelines. Economic risks that are relevant to the Company include market, credit and liquidity risks. These are detailed in the financial risk management note in the Annual Report. If the Company's exposure to any of the above risks changes, it will disclose this and how it manages or intends to manage those risks at the end of each annual reporting period.
